

ALUMNI IMPACT SURVEY

Supporting Youth Beyond High School

In March 2023, Pathways to Education conducted an inaugural Alumni Impact Survey to gather information about the long-term impacts of the Pathways Program. Findings from the survey provide a valuable snapshot of life after high school for Pathways alumni and give important insights into how Pathways alumni make valuable economic and civil contributions to society.

Educational Status

Pathways alumni are pursuing post-secondary education or training in various programs of study.

of alumni who are attending school are attending full time.

Top Areas of Study

- Health Sciences (18%)
- Business and Management (18%)
- Humanities and Arts (10%)
- Science (9%)

Employment Status

Pathways alumni are making valuable contributions to Canada's economy through their diverse participation in the labour force.

of alumni who are working are holding a permanent job.

Top Employment Industries

- Business, Finance, and Administration (22%)
- Education, Law, Social Community, and Government (21%)
- Sales and Services (17%)

Civic Engagement

Pathways alumni are giving back to their communities and see a clear connection between program participation and civic engagement.

of alumni reported making a charitable contribution in the last 12 months.

“Through the Pathways Program, I have come to appreciate the importance of community engagement and its many benefits. As a result, I am committed to continuing to give back to my community and making a positive impact on the lives of others.”

Competency Development

Pathways alumni realize that the Pathways Program is helping them to develop critical competencies needed for success.

of alumni reported that the Pathways Program helped them develop competencies.

Top Competencies & Skills Gained

- Goal-setting (62%)
- Open-mindedness (56%)
- Learning Habits (54%)
- Leadership (49%)

“These competencies and skills helped me navigate life after high school by helping me focus on what is important, stay motivated, and overcome obstacles to achieve my goals.”